DETAILED ACTION

I. Preliminary Matters:

(a) Applicants response of 9/2/2003 has been received and entered into the file.

-Claims 1-19 and claims 22-49 are cancelled.

-Claims 20-21 and 50-56 are pending.

II. Remarks:

(a) Issues regarding 35 USC 102(b):

Applicants have amended the claims in a form that overcomes the aforementioned rejection.

Thus, the rejection has been obviated.

(b) Objections: claims 50-56 have been limited to correspond to the elected subject matter.

Thus, the objections have been obviated.

III. New Rejections:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 20-21 and 50-56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The proviso out a particular compound which was claimed in the prior art, i.e., "a compound wherein R6 is methyl; R12 is ethyl; and R14 is hydroxymethyl". This proviso lacks descriptive support in the specification. A specific compound such as this has not been described or exemplified in the disclosure or originally filed claims. A lack of adequate written description issue arises if the knowledge and level of skill in the art would not permit an ordinary skilled artisan to readily envisage a particular species from a “laundry list” disclosure of every possible moiety in a genus because it would not “reasonably lead” those skilled in the art to any particular species See, e.g., Fujikawa v. Wattanasin, 93 F.3d 1559, 1571, 39 USPQ2d 1895, 1905 (Fed. Cir. 1996). The laundry list of moieties possible at the R13, R14 and R6 positions in the instant disclosure does not reasonably lead the skilled artisan to the specifically excluded species by a negative limitation. Thus, the inclusion of the proviso to the specific compound adds new matter to the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 20-21 and 50-56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 20-21 and 50-56 recites the limitation “a compound wherein R6 is methyl; R12 is ethyl; and R14 is hydroxymethyl” are “excluded”. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the disclosure or originally filed claims.

IV. Finality:

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
